

Central Intelligence Agency

APPROVED FOR RELEASE
DATE: 04-27-2009

Washington, D.C. 20505

FEB 23 2007

[Redacted]

Reference: F-2007-00307

Dear [Redacted]

The office of the Information and Privacy Coordinator has received your 3 November 2006 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request wherein you state that “[t]he Central Intelligence Agency has signed several Interagency Agreements (abbreviated either IAA or IAG) with the Library of Congress / Federal Research Division.” You then requested information under the FOIA for the following material associated with those Agreements:

“1). ...each such Interagency Agreement between the Office of the Director of National Intelligence and the Library of Congress Federal Research Division, during the time period January 1, 2000 to the present

For each agreement, [you] also request of copy of

2) The Statement of Work; and

3) the Federal Research Division work proposal.”

During a recent shelf review we discovered that we had not replied to your request. We apologize for this oversight. We have assigned your request the reference number above. Please use this number when corresponding so that we can identify it easily.

We accept your request and will process it according to the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552, as amended, and the CIA Information Act, 50 U.S.C. § 431, as amended. We will search for records as described above, existing through the date of this acceptance letter.

Based on the information provided in your letter, we determined that your request falls into the “all other” fee category, which means that you will be required to pay charges which recover the cost of searching for and reproducing responsive records (if any) beyond the first 100 pages of reproduction and the first two hours of search time, which will be furnished without charge. Copying costs will be assessed at the rate of ten cents per page. We note your willingness to pay up to $25 for costs associated with this request.

The large number of FOIA requests CIA receives has created unavoidable delays making it unlikely that we can respond within the 20 working days the FOIA requires. You have the right to consider our honest appraisal as a denial of your request and you may appeal to the Agency Release Panel. A more practical approach would permit us to continue processing your request and respond to you as soon as we can. You will retain your appeal rights and, once you receive the results of our search, can appeal at that time if you wish. We will proceed on that basis unless you object.

Sincerely,

Scott Koch
Information and Privacy Coordinator

